

Open call – European Solidarity Corps Volunteers from Croatia and Portugal

Would you like to spend a year in the Eternal City of Rome volunteering for a small dynamic team in a student organisation? Are you ready to embark on a journey of self-discovery, skills development and creation of impact on your surroundings?

Erasmus Student Network Italy is looking for European Solidarity Corps volunteers from Croatia and Portugal!

Erasmus Student Network Italy is a student organisation committed to help international exchange students to integrate in the local community. It consists of over 50 local associations coordinated by a National Executive Board. It is also active in the fields of youth policy and advocacy, voicing the opinion of students and volunteers to the decision-makers, Finally, it implements various EU funded projects.

ESN Italy has its headquarters in Rome where the Secretariat assists the Executive Board in their daily activities. You would be volunteering in the office of ESN Italy and helping the Director of ESN Italy.

You will:

- Learn about project management
- Develop and deliver workshops on project management to volunteers of ESN in Rome
- Help organise events for exchange students in Rome
- Learn about daily tasks and administration of a civil sector organisation
- Develop your communication and organisational skills
- Improve your Italian and/or English
- Get the opportunity to tell us what you would want to learn about, and we will do our best to make it happen

We are looking for two volunteers that are

- interested in topic of education, youth, culture and volunteering
- interested in learning about functioning of a civil sector organisation
- interested in project management and event management

The interested volunteers should be

- open and flexible
- eager to learn
- comfortable in multicultural environment

ESN Italy will provide a 600€ allowance to cover the accommodation in Rome. In addition to this, volunteers will be provided with a daily pocket money, health assurance, local transportation pass and an ESNcard that gives the possibility to access numerous discounts through esncard.org as well as the access to our corporate welfare platform. Travel costs for arrival in Rome and for departure at the end of the project are covered as well. Volunteers will be assisted in finding accommodation in Rome and in arranging the travels.

The call is open until 15th of September for the volunteers coming from Croatia and Portugal.

The project will start as soon as the volunteers are available, but not later than 15th October.

The duration of the project is 12 months. Apply by sending your CV and motivational letter on applications@esn.it until 15th of September 23:59 with the subject ESC Volunteer Application. We are waiting for you!
